PITT MEADOWS	I	I	T	I	T
	es will be updated as candidate results are su	burland Shook book or and add
*Note: survey response	es will be updated as candidate results are su	bmitted. Check back regularly!
Name	Q1) Zoos & Aquariums	Q2) Animals In Entertainment	Q3) Factory Farming	Q4) Plant-based Foods	Q5) Meatless Monday	Q6) Pet-friendly Housing	Q7) Animal-Related Bylaws
			More than 100 million animals are raised Wild and exotic animals (including those who are captive-bred) have unique	Public sentiment surrounding the use of animals for entertainment (e.g. circuses,	and slaughtered for food every year in	There is growing consensus among experts that significantly reducing or eliminating	Meatless Monday is an international movement that aims to help protect animal	Amidst an unprecedented affordable housing crisis and historically low vacancy	Municipalities have the ability to regulate concerns related to animals. If elected will biological and behavioural needs that	dog-sledding, rodeo events like calf-roping,	British Columbia. The vast majority are	our consumption of animal products is a	welfare, the environment and public health	rates across British Columbia, affordable	you ensure that standards of care are cannot be met when kept in captivity.	steer-wrestling and team-roping, use of	confined in unnatural and intensive	necessary step in mitigating climate	by encouraging people to skip meat one	pet-friendly housing is in dramatically short	outlined in your animal-related bylaws,
	These animals can suffer greatly when	wild or exotic animals for tv/film) has	conditions and a number of undercover	change, addressing factory farming and	day a week. This initiative to reduce our	supply. If elected, will you support ending	ensuring that nuisance and welfare issues confined in unnatural environments. If	shifted in recent years, due to increased	investigations in recent years have revealed	protecting public health. If elected, will	collective overconsumption of animal	the 'no pets' rental policies?	are addressed together?
	elected, will you support ending the	awareness surrounding animal welfare	widespread issues of animal cruelty.	you support efforts at the municipal level	products has seen significant growth in	the no pets remarpointes.	are addressed together.
	keeping of wild and exotic animals in	concerns. If elected, will you support	Growing public concern for animal welfare	to increase availability of plant-based	Metro Vancouver in recent years. If permanent captivity, in favour of genuine	ending the use of animals for	has resulted in calls for stronger on-farm	foods?	elected, will you support the local Meatless
	rescue, rehab and release programs and	entertainment purposes in favour of	regulations, as well as on-farm government		Monday movement?
	wildlife conservation efforts?	animal and family-friendly events?	oversight and enforcement, as opposed to		· leaving the animal agriculture industry to self-regulate. If elected, will you support government regulation and oversight of the animal farming industry?
John Becker
Bill Dingwall			1
CITY COUNCIL
Name
Brad Dinwoodie
Janis Elkerton
Mike Hayes
Ariane Jaschkle
Nicole MacDonald
Bob Meachen
Susan L Miller
Tracy Miyashita
Gwen O'Connell
Anena Simpson
SCHOOL TRUSTEE
SCHOOL TRUSTEE	Q1) Plant-Based Foods	Q2) Meatless Monday	Q3) Animal Dissection In Schools
name
		Meatless Monday is an international	As effective and low-cost alternatives to that significantly reducing or eliminating our consumption of animal products is a	movement that aims to help protect animal welfare, the environment and	animal dissection have become widely available, a growing number of school necessary step in mitigating climate	public health by encouraging people to	districts are enacting student choice change, addressing factory farming and	skip meat one day a week. This initiative to protecting public health. If elected, will	reduce our collective overconsumption of	opt out of animal dissections and be given you support efforts within your school	animal products has seen significant	non-animal alternatives. Meanwhile, a district to increase availability of plant-	growth in Metro Vancouver in recent	recent survey indicates that 72% of British based foods?	years. If elected, will you support the local Meatless Monday movement?	should have written student choice policies
		•	to this effect. If elected, will you support the inclusion and implementation of a student choice policy for animal dissection within your school district?
Korleen Carreras
Eleanor Palis			1		1
Jesse Sidhu
Katie Sullivan			1		1
Junion
1			I		I		