		Т	T	T	Т	T	T
LANGLEY TOWNSHIP *Note: survey responses will be	be updated as candidate results are submitted. C	heck back regularly!
MAYOR		, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,
lack Froese	Cal Ecros Americans and California (Marchael California	Debt is estimated a common the use of animals for entertainment (e.g. circuses, Debt is estimated or entertainment (e.g. circuses, docs electing, robe events like call-roping, wild or excitc animals for tryflim) has shifted in recent years, due to increased awareness surrounding animal welfare concerns. If elected, will you support ending the use of animals for metratainment purposes in favour of animal and family-friendly events?	More than 120 million animals are raised and sisupliered for food every year in British Calumbia. The vast majority are district Calumbia. The vast majority are conditions and a number of undercover investigations in recent years have revealed widespread issues of animal rurelty. Growing public concern for animal welfare has resulted in calls for stronger on-farm regulations, as well as on afarm government oversight and enforcement, as opposed to leaving the animal agriculture induction of the control of the co	Cell James Condensus among experts that significantly reducing or eliminating our consumption of animal products is a sound consumption of animal products is a sounderesting factory farming and protecting building of the product of the condensus of the condensu	Meatless Monday is an international movement that aims to help protect animal welfare, the environment and public health welfare, the environment and public health was read to be a support of the protect of the prote	Co) sectioned storage Amiliata unspreaded the Amiliata unspreaded thousing crisis and historically low uscancy rosts across fortic Coulhibla, affordable restricts across fortic Coulhibla, affordable restricts across the control of the Coulhibla and Coulh	Amongalities have the ability to regulate concern selded to animals. If elected will you ensure that standards of orea are you ensure that standards of orea are ensuring that ruisance and welfare issue are addressed together?
Alexander Joehl Anna Remenik	Yes. "If the animal can survive in the wild when	Yes. "It has been good to see the awareness	Yes. "I'd like to see incentives put in place	Yes. "Our Township is fortunate to have	Var III.	Yes. "I think if the homeowner felt there	V
	res it to enimal can share on it the who were received. If more, then they should be kept in a natural habitat."	16s. In soven good to see the adventions to stransferring into decisions made by the various industries.	tes. I a like to see intentives put in piace to shift things away from factory farms. I'd like to see everyone on board with allevisting those conditions, alminas should not be made to suffer. I personally favour more sustainable, organic, and traditional farming practices, and believe as comumers we have a great deal of power in whom we support."		Yes. "Ahays in flavour of sharing choices that are available, so people can make an informed decision."	res. I think if the romewome feet there was sufficient, think in the romework was sufficient, think which was sufficient, the property of the result of the	16.
CITY COUNCIL
Name Petrina Arnason
Gail Chaddock-Costello
Michelle Connerty David Davis
Beverley Dornan Stephen Ferguson
Gary Hee
Phyllis Heppner Jonathan Houweling
Sunny Hundal
Margaret Kunst Bob Long
Michael Pratt
Angela Quaale Kim Richter
	Yee. "My only argument for animals in capitory are for those that do not qualify for "genutine rescue, rebab and release programs and wildlife conservation for 15°C." such as those with permanent afflictions that keep them from re- tint todiction / release opportunities and due to a lack of adequate gene diversity are not eligible for conservation based breeding programs."	Yes. There may be historical/cultural arguments for some groups but there is no reason not to continue with education efforts that see the call for these to be phased out and reduced over time. As to film and television it is increasingly common to see CS replacing actual animals and I would hope the trend will continue."	Yes. To believe there is regulation in place but not adequate enforcement. Undercover investigations uncovered events universally condementely but his public and producers. Lack of supervision, enforcement and vigilance leads to the lapses seen. More regulation world; their if we cannot enforce the laws we already have.	Yes. "With the ALR in place we should be embracing an incentive to revitilize the underused land we have immediately around us. It would be fantasit to see more alternative crops and local elastress usporpring the resulting products especially in an area like Langley!"	Yes. "My family already subscribes to a meat free night (or 2) a week as a way of being mindful and aware of the impact we have."	No. The cost of housing is already extremely high and while I myself have struggled as a pet owner to find a commodation (I) have even slept in my car as a result of being unable to house my doing collegal slab have seen the impact of teamst that do not properly care for press while m a result situation. Deports on accommodation in ear out sufficient to cover instituted in the control of the c	Yes. "Delieve we have an opportunity to use any and all resources to better no not the lives of the people in our community but everyone and everything. "If having a soul means being able to feel love and loyely has gratude, then animals are better off than a lot of humans."—James Herriot."
Michelle Sparrow
Craig Teichrieb Stacey Wakelin
Harold Whittell Blair Whitmarsh			-	-			-
Eric Woodward
SCHOOL TRUSTEE
Name	Q1) Plant-Based Foods	Q2) Meatless Monday	Q3) Animal Dissection In Schools
	There is growing consensus among experts that significantly reducing or eliminating our consumption of animal products is a necessary step in mitigating climate change, addressing factory farming and protecting public health. If	Meatless Monday is an international movement that aims to help protect animal welfare, the environment and public health by encouraging people to skip meat one day a week. This initiative to reduce our	As effective and low-cost alternatives to animal dissection have become widely available, a growing number of school districts are enacting student choice policies that allow students the ability to opt out of ractory artiming and protecting positive freatm. In detected, will you support efforts within your school district to increase availability of plant- based foods?	a week. In a missive to reduce our collective overcommitprion of animal products has seen significant growth in Metro Vancouver in recent years. If elected, will you support the local Meatless Monday movement?	animal dissections and be given non-animal atternatives. Meanwhile, a recent unwelled resident and agree that 72% of British Columbians agree that school boards should have written student choice policies to this effect. If elected, will you support the inclusion and implementation of a student choice policy for animal dissection within your school district?
Megan Dykeman	elected, will you support efforts within your school district to increase availability of plant-	collective overconsumption of animal products has seen significant growth in Metro Vancouver in recent years. If elected,	alternatives. Meanwhile, a recent survey indicates that 72% of British Columbians agree that school boards should have written student choice policies to this effect. If elected, will you support the inclusion and implementation of a student choice policy for animal dissection
Megan Dykeman Brent Larsen Suzanne Perrealt	elected, will you support efforts within your school district to increase availability of plant-	collective overconsumption of animal products has seen significant growth in Metro Vancouver in recent years. If elected,	alternatives. Meanwhile, a recent survey indicates that 72% of British Columbians agree that school boards should have written student choice policies to this effect. If elected, will you support the inclusion and implementation of a student choice policy for animal dissection
Megan Dykeman Brent Larsen Susanne Perresilt Rod Ross Cheyd Snowdon-Eddy	elected, will you support efforts within your school district to increase availability of plant-	collective overconsumption of animal products has seen significant growth in Metro Vancouver in recent years. If elected,	alternatives. Meanwhile, a recent survey indicates that 72% of British Columbians agree that school boards should have written student choice policies to this effect. If elected, will you support the inclusion and implementation of a student choice policy for animal dissection
Megan Dykeman Grent Larsen Susanne Perrealit Rod Ross Cherl Snowdon-Eddy David Tod	elected, will you support efforts within your school district to increase availability of plant-	collective overconsumption of animal products has seen significant growth in Metro Vancouver in recent years. If elected,	alternatives. Meanwhile, a recent survey indicates that 72% of British Columbians agree that school boards should have written student choice policies to this effect. If elected, will you support the inclusion and implementation of a student choice policy for animal dissection
Megan Dykeman Brent Larsen Susanne Perrasilt Rond Ross Cherk Snowdon-Eddy David Tod	elected, will you support efforts within your school district to increase availability of plant- based foods?	collective overconsumption of animal products has send significant growth in Metro Vancouver in recent years. If elected, will you support the local Meatless Monday movement?	alternatives. Meanwhile, a recent survey incidents that 72% of British Columbians agree that school boards should have written student choice policies to this effect. If elected, will you support the inciduon and implementation of a student choice policy for animal dissection within your school district?				